

BI524 Epistles of Paul

Short Syllabus

Instructor: Michael Morrison

Course description

Students in this course examine the 13 letters attributed to Paul in the New Testament. Students will learn the circumstances in which each letter was written – the problems Paul was attempting to address and the way he responded to them. Lectures will include questions of date and authorship, theological considerations involved in what Paul wrote, and how students can find modern significance in these letters. Prerequisite: BI501.

Estimated workload: For a student to do well in this course, the student will need to invest a total of 146 hours, or about 12 hours per week of reading, participating on the website, and writing papers.

Requirements and assignments

1. Lectures. The lectures are about 40 pages each week (more than for most GCS courses), and you will need about 4 hours each week for them.
2. Five forum discussions. These account for 10 percent of the final grade.
3. Two textbooks. They total about 600 pages. We estimate that the average student will read these books in about 40 hours, or about 4 hours per week.
4. Three quizzes. Short quizzes will account for 5 percent of the grade. You may use your books and notes when you take the quizzes.
5. One exegetical paper: Write a 10-page paper on a passage in one of Paul's letters. Choose one of four passages – 1 Cor. 2:1-12; Eph. 4:7-16; Phil. 3:17–4:1; or 1 Thess. 2:1-8.

This paper will be written in two parts. The first part, discussing historical and literary details, is due at the end of the fifth week. The second part, discussing the original meaning and contemporary significance of the passage, is due at the end of the 12th week.

Students must interact with at least one book that is more than 100 years old, and at least three modern scholarly books, including at least two major commentaries.<sup>1</sup> This paper accounts for 70 percent of the grade.

6. One book review: Write a 3-5 page review of the book by Anthony Thiselton. Identify two sections you found helpful, and explain how they are helpful. Identify one passage in the book that you found confusing, unpersuasive, or wrong, and support your view. This paper is due at the end of the 8th week and accounts for 15 percent of the grade.

<sup>1</sup> Modern means within the last 25 years. Major means at least 15 pages per biblical chapter; a commentary that covers the entire New Testament in one volume will not have enough detail. See <https://sites.google.com/view/biblestudyresources/paul>.
